It has been the custom of the paymaster to drive from Astoria every Saturday soon after noon to Riker's Beach, where a gang of men is employed on a new plant. On these trips he carried about $2,000 in small bills and silver with which to pay off the workmen.

Another tremendous surprise was sprung on the gridiron to-day when West Point overwhelmed Yale, winning by a score of 11 to 6. At the end of the first half the score was 6 to 6, both teams having scored touchdowns and kicked their goals. The Army put up a stone wall dea fense throughout the game, and when the final whistle blew Yale was defending her own territory.

In the second half the New Haven boys worked the ball into Arms ground by furious rushes, but when the Blue had reached the Cadets twenty-yard line Torrey, a cadet, plucked the sphere out of a scrimmage FIRST RACE—Monet (18 to 5) 1, and ran 100 yards for a touchdown. Football of the most strenuous kind was played on the other big Eastern gridirons. On Franklyn Field Columbia was swept off her feet by the Pennsylvania team, the Quakers winnink by 16 to 0. The New Yorkers were never in the game for a minute.

Twenty-two thousand Harvard rooters watched the Crimson struggle every minute of two twenty-five minute halves to win from Carlisle by the narrow margin of 12 to 0. Outwelshing the redskins thirty pounds to a man, the Cambridge team could not score in the first half.

Princeton met Lehigh, mowed down the Pennsylvanians and rubbed them in the dust 60 to 0, and Cornell had an easy time with Franklyn and
